Discuss Influence Behaviours

By:

- Normally there is a script that you would print or put on slides
 - But that has been recreated into a visual novel
 - just ask the cadets to play each of the 6 characters

Teaching Points

TP1 - discuss directive influence

TP2 - discuss persuasive influence

TP3 - discuss participative influence

TP4 - Group Discussion

TP1: Directive Behaviour

- Involves telling teammates what, when, how and to what standard they are to accomplish the task
- May be a simple request, a formal order or something in between
- Passing on and executing a superior's objective
- Assigning and coordinating tasks
- When teammates lack information/experience and need guidance
- Used when time is lacking, safety, and control of personnel are not possible
- Ex. Drill is normally conducted using directive behaviour

Setting

Six first year cadets at a CSTC are getting ready for a barrack inspection to take place in one hour.

Cadet Red

Okay we have a barrack inspection in an hour, we better get ready.

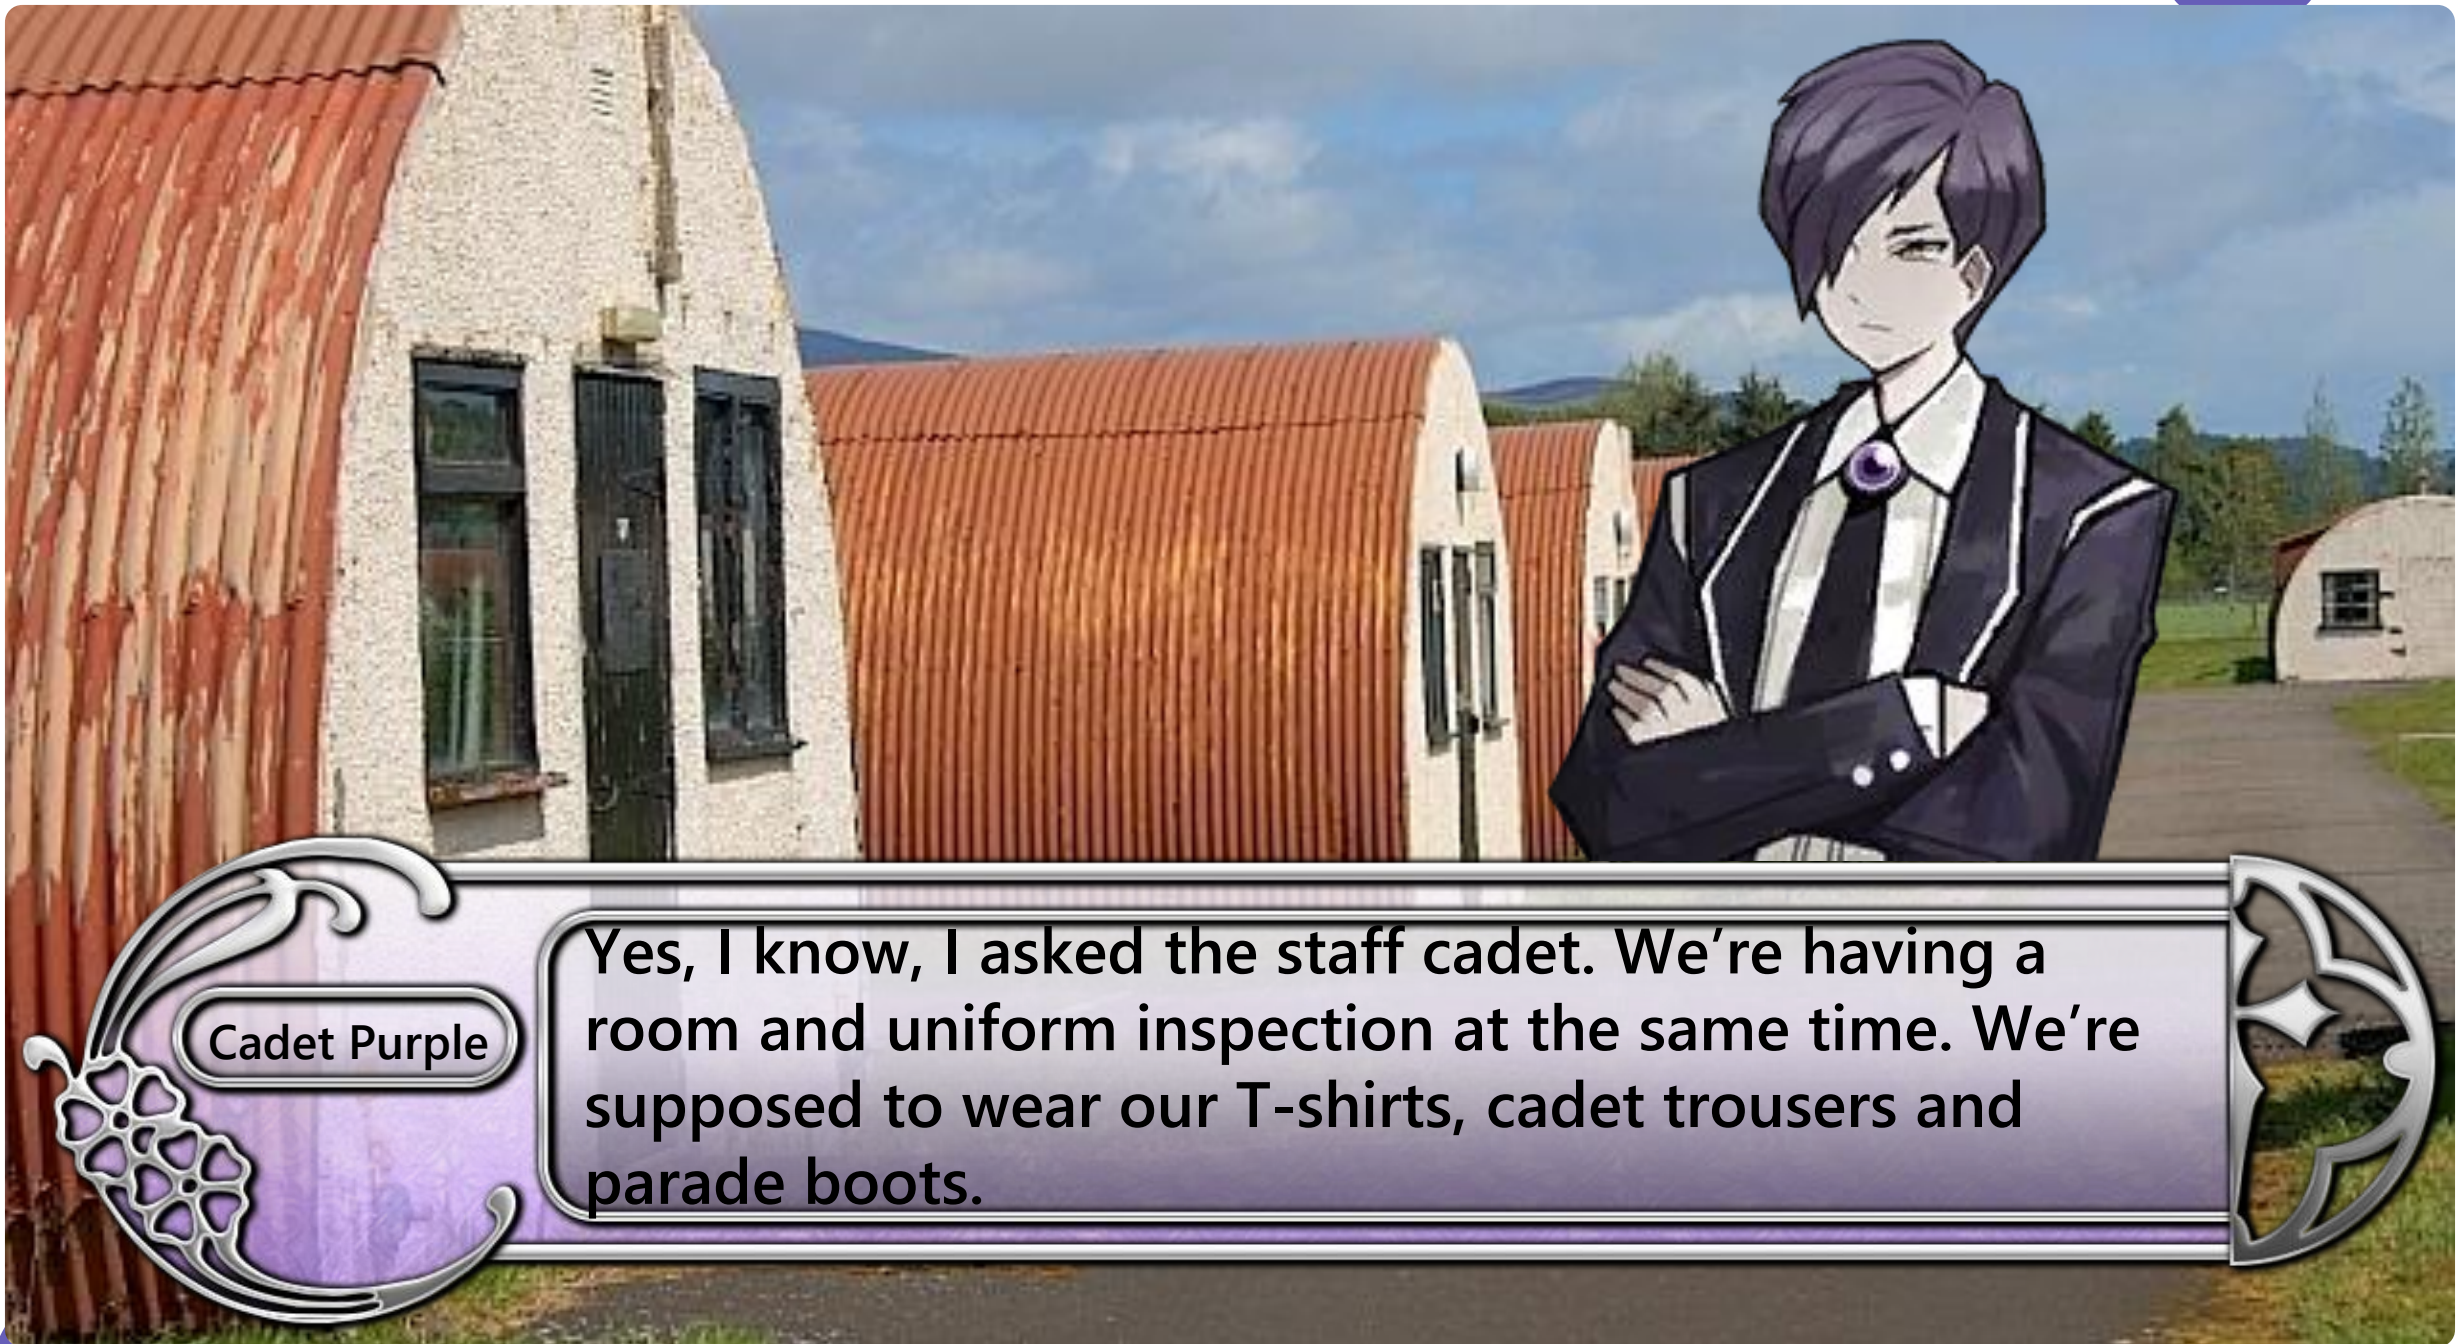

Cadet Orange

Do we have a uniform inspection at the same time or is it just the room?

Cadet Red

I don't know. Does anyone else?

Cadet Purple

Yes, I know, I asked the staff cadet. We're having a room and uniform inspection at the same time. We're supposed to wear our T-shirts, cadet trousers and parade boots.

Cadet Blue

Man, that's a lot of stuff in just an hour.

Cadet Yellow

No kidding.

Cadet Green

I don't think I'll be ready.

Cadet Purple

We need to get stuff done fast, so here's what should happen. You two, Cadet Red and Cadet Orange will make the beds and sweep the room. That takes care of the room.

Cadet Blue

What about our uniforms?

Cadet Purple

You, Cadet Blue, take everyone's T-shirts and iron them

Cadet Yellow

And trousers and boots?

Cadet Purple

You, Cadet Yellow, take everyone's trousers and iron them and Cadet Green and I will do everyone's boots.

Cadet Red

That didn't take long to come up with a plan. I hope we get everything done.

We will, if everyone does their job and right now.

Cadet Purple

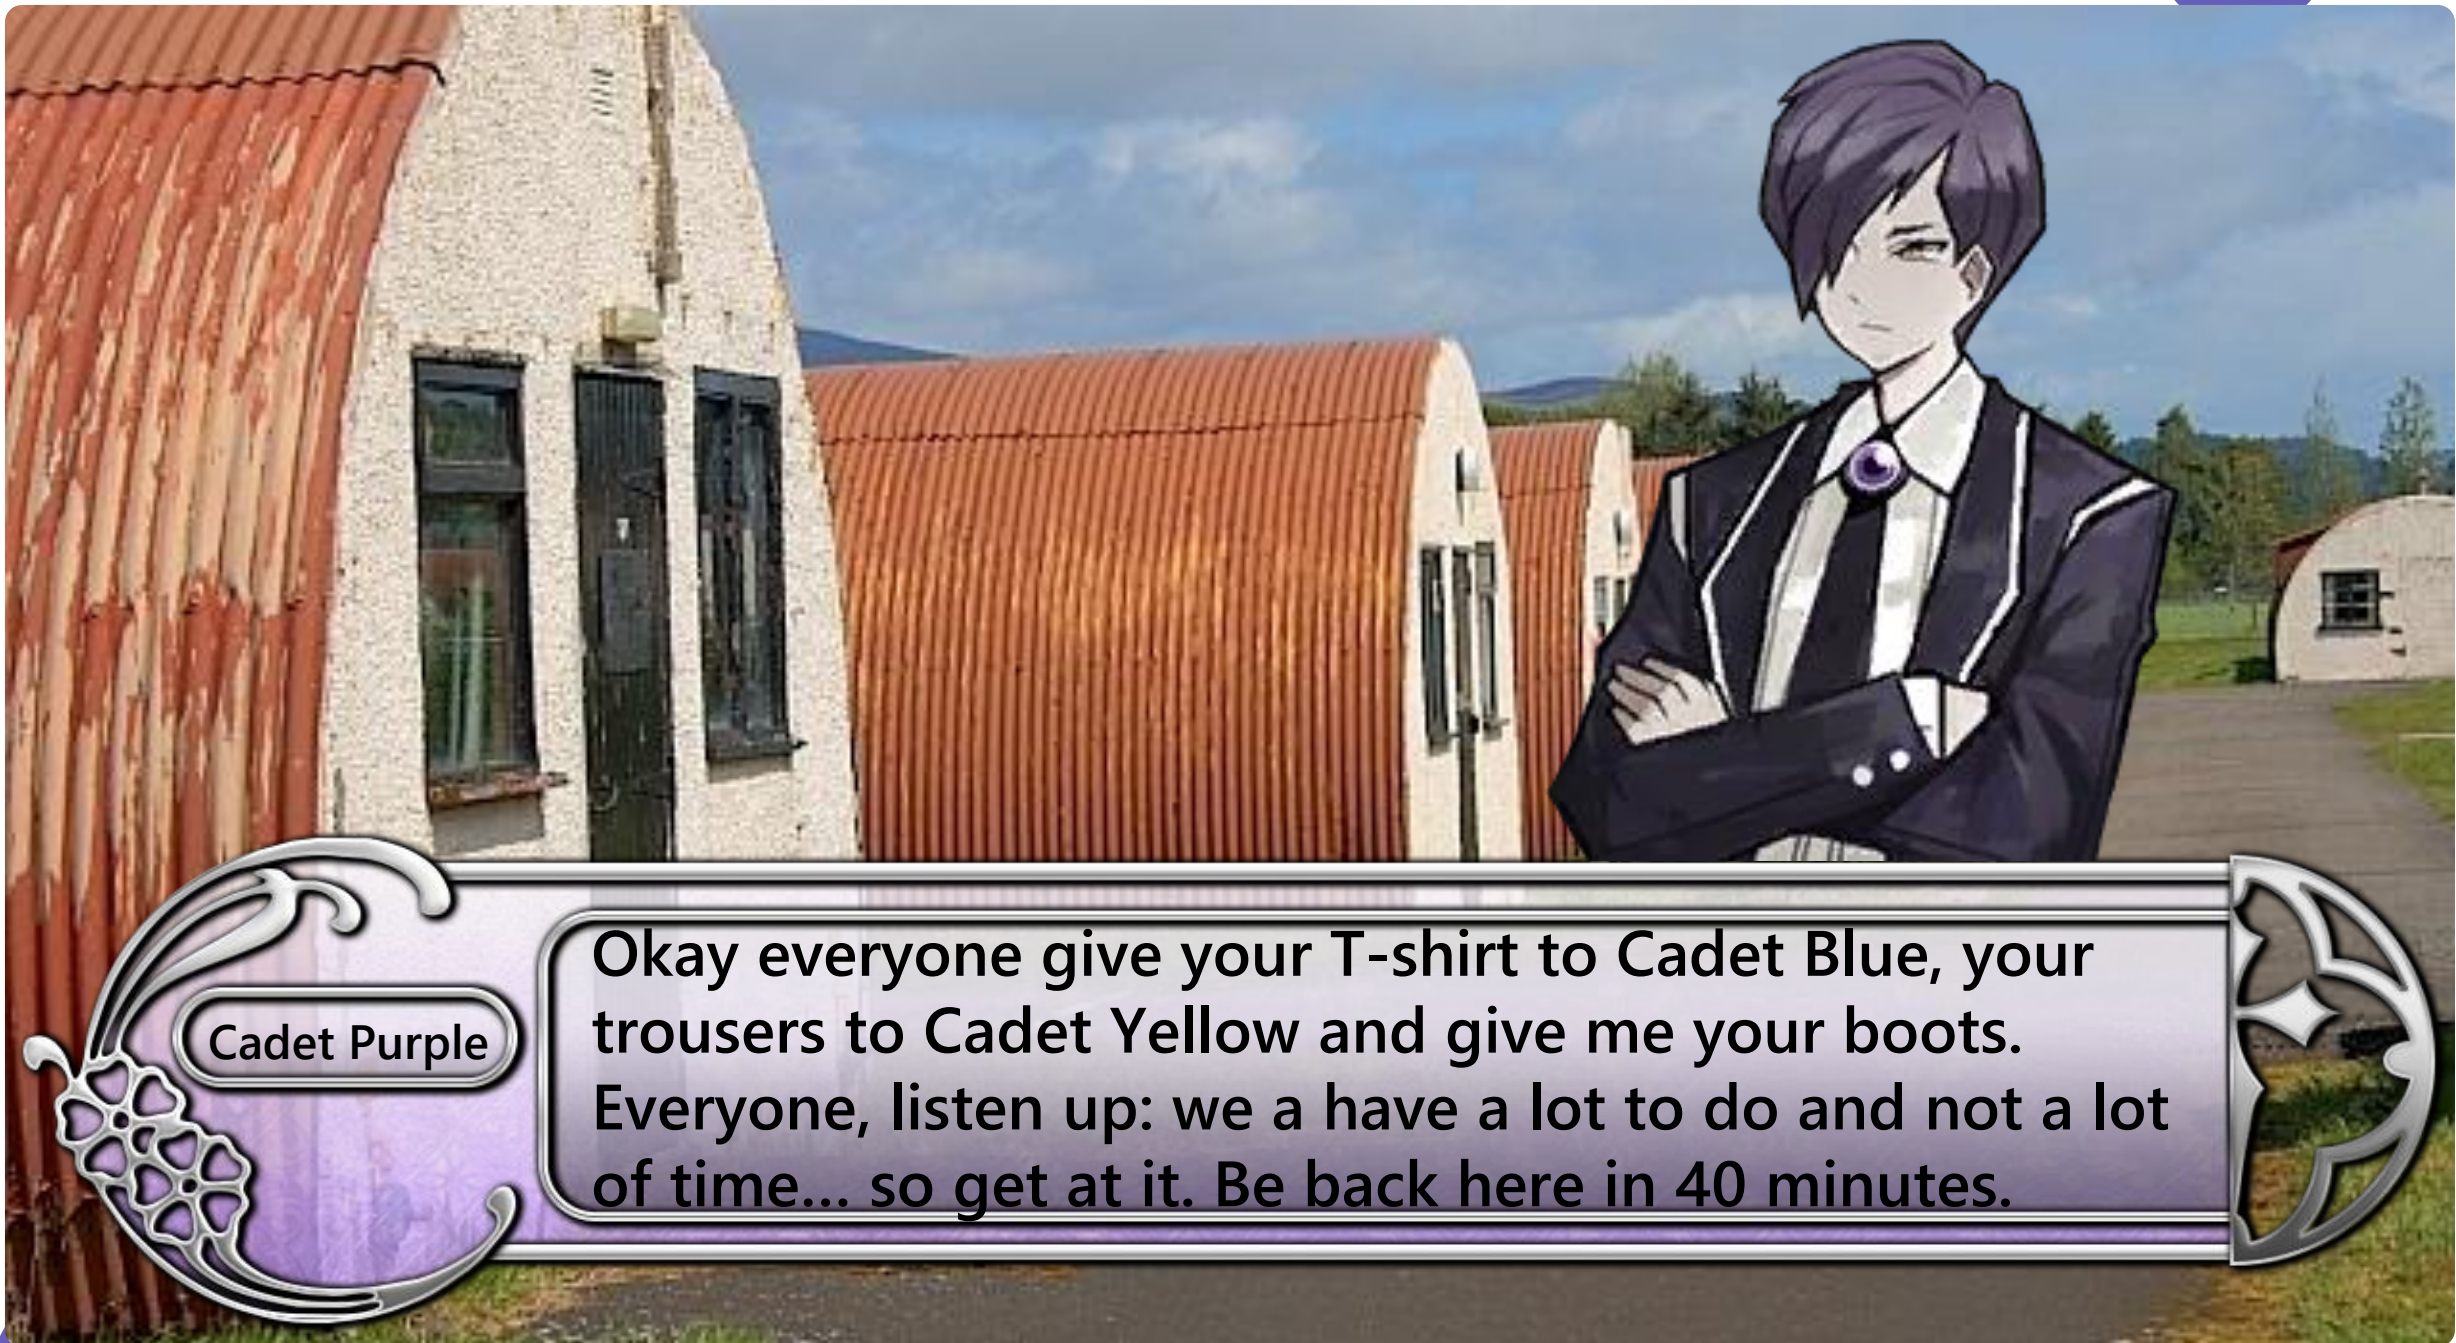

Cadet Red

I'm not great at making beds but I'll do what I'm told.

Cadet Orange

I'm okay at beds, we'll do fine.

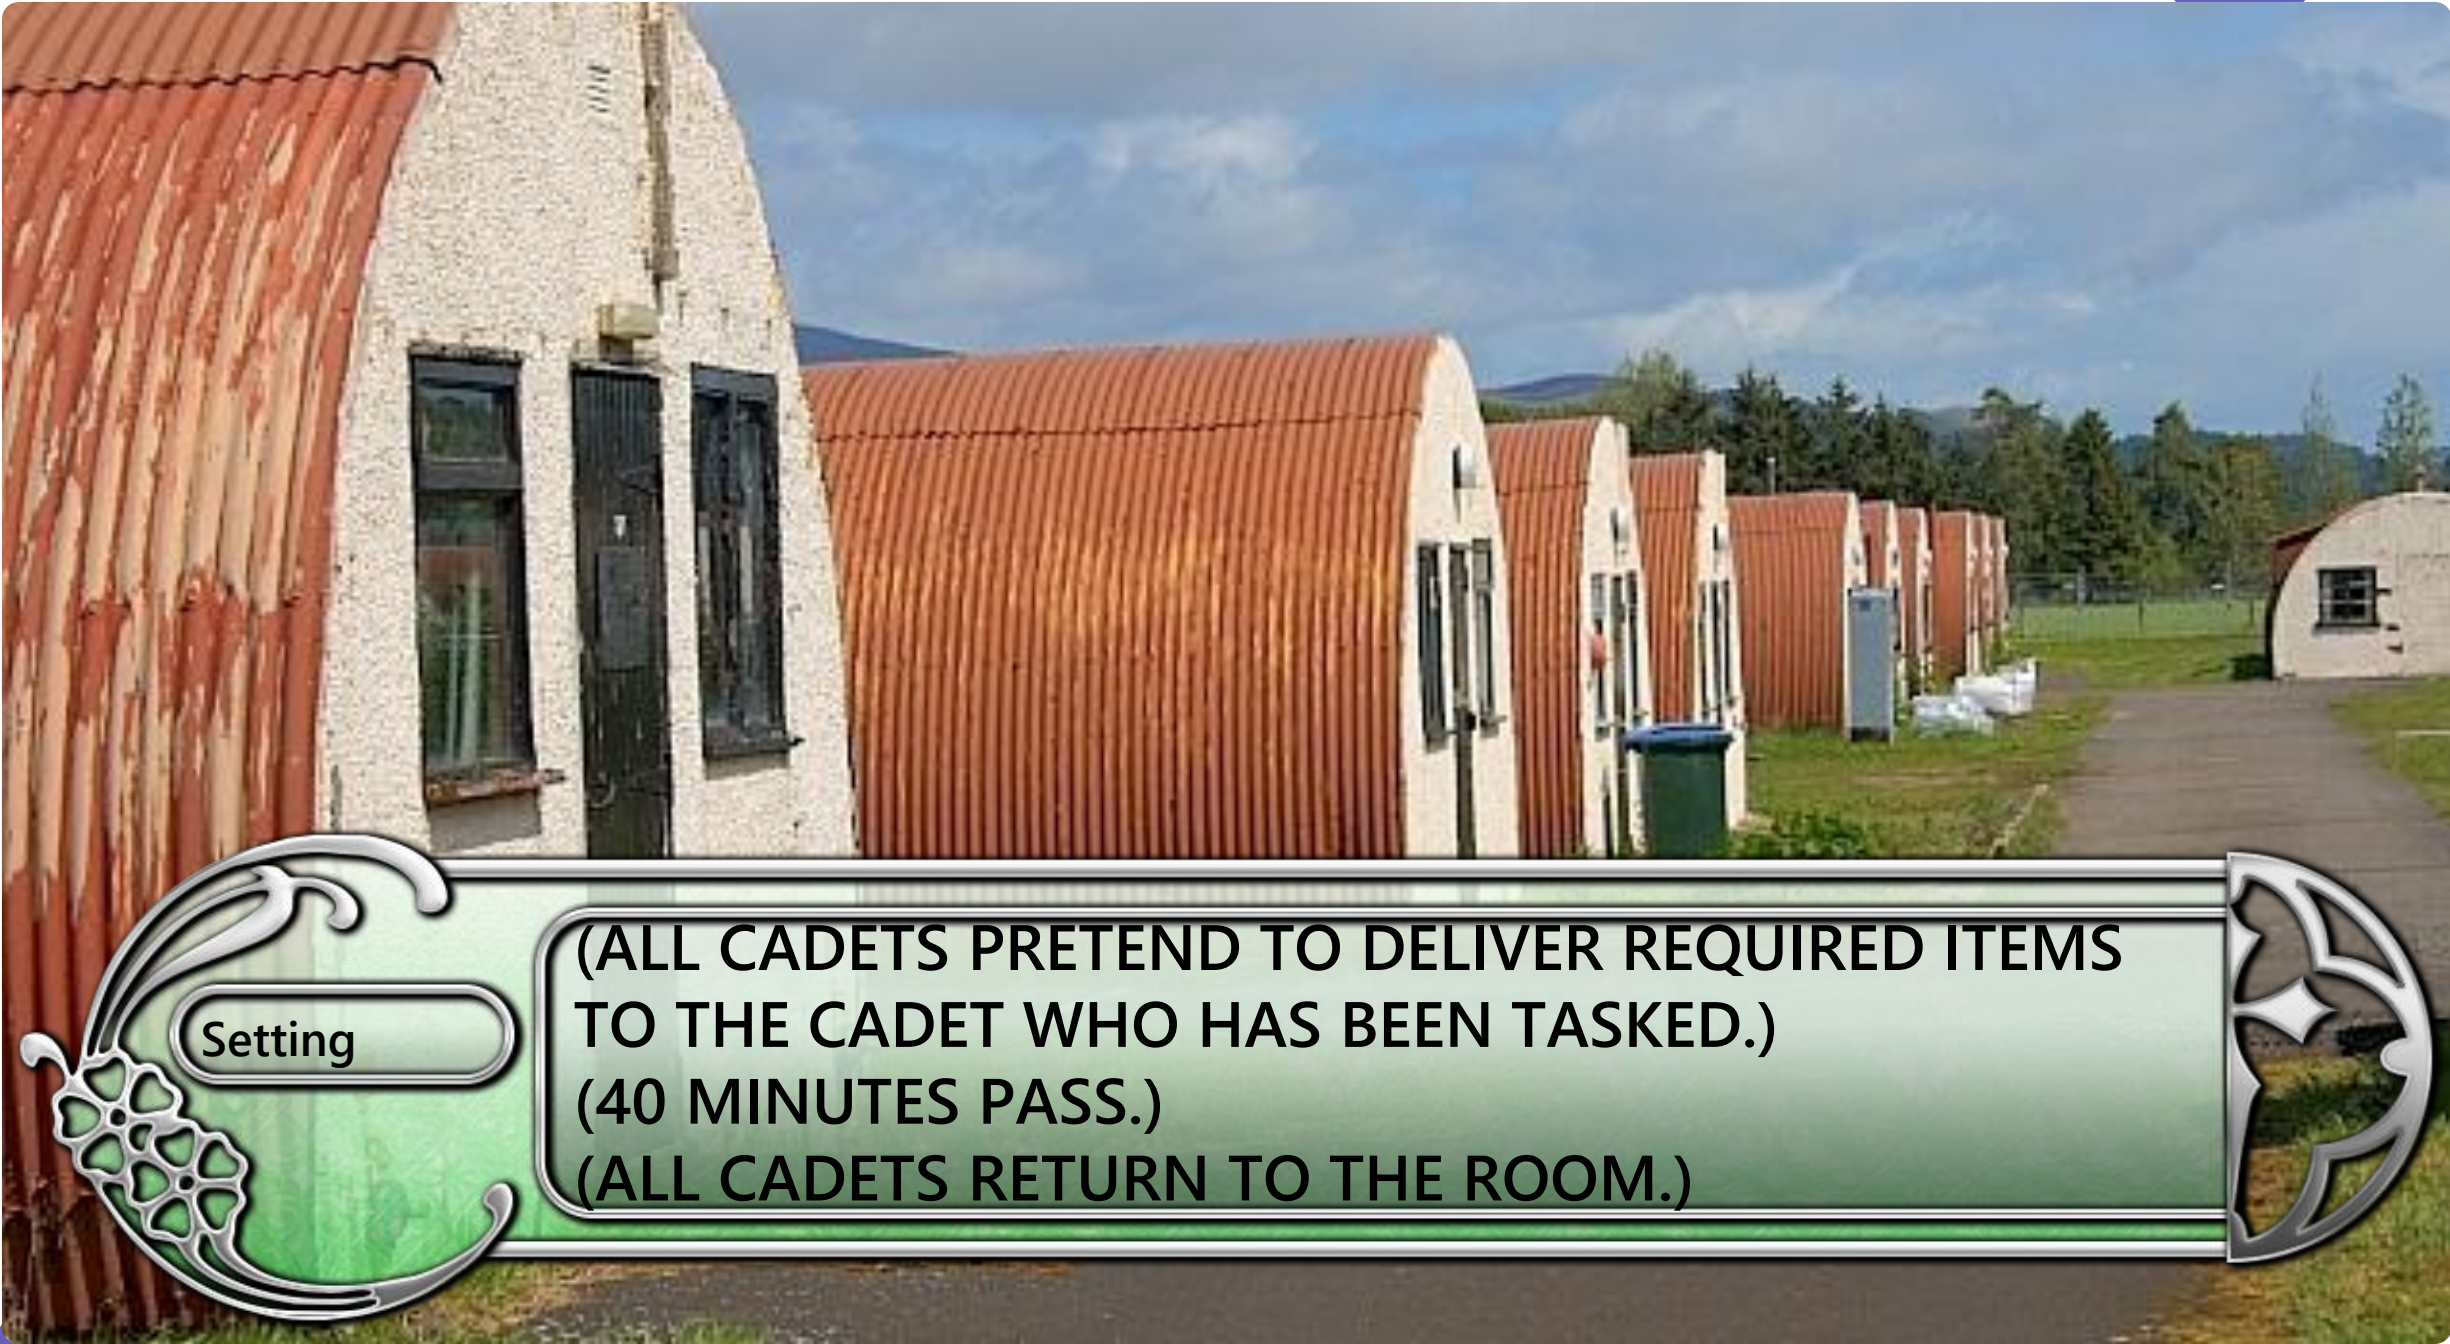

Cadet Purple

Okay everyone give your T-shirt to Cadet Blue, your trousers to Cadet Yellow and give me your boots. Everyone, listen up: we a have a lot to do and not a lot of time... so get at it. Be back here in 40 minutes.

Cadet Green

I'll get my polishing kit.

Setting

(ALL CADETS PRETEND TO DELIVER REQUIRED ITEMS
TO THE CADET WHO HAS BEEN TASKED.)
(40 MINUTES PASS.)
(ALL CADETS RETURN TO THE ROOM.)

Cadet Red

As everyone can see, the beds are done and the room is swept.

The beds aren't great, but they'll pass inspection

Cadet Orange

How did the ironing go?

Cadet Purple

Cadet Blue

Here are the T-shirts ready to go. I've never ironed that many in such a short time. I hope they pass the inspection.

Cadet Yellow

All the trousers have the right creases, and I don't see any railroad tracks.

Cadet Green

And we finished everyone's boots.

Cadet Purple

Let's get into our uniforms right now because we're running out of time.

Setting

(EVERYONE GETS READY FOR THE INSPECTION.)

Cadet Purple

We look okay. I'm pretty sure we will pass the inspection. Okay everyone stand at attention by your bed, because here comes the staff cadet.

CONFIRMATION QUESTIONS

Q1. What does directive behaviour involve?

Q2. When is directive behaviour appropriate?

Q3. Where is directive behaviour used most often?

A1. Directive behaviour involves telling teammates what they are to do, and possibly, when, how and to what standard.

A2. Directive behaviour is appropriate when passing on and executing a superior's objective, when assigning and coordinating tasks and when teammates lack information or experience and need guidance.

A3. Directive behaviour is used most often in emergency situations where time, safety, and control of personnel are factors.

TP2 - PERSUASIVE BEHAVIOUR

- Used to influence decision-making and motivation. Accomplished by explaining to, or convincing others why a certain course of action is necessary.
- Uses rational argument based on facts, reason and logic
- Allows teammates to understand the potential benefits to them
- High commitment and when high levels of effort are required to accomplish a task.
- There are many situations when persuasive behaviour is used. These may include problem-solving, counselling, teaching, etc.
- Persuasive behaviour is usually effective in a peer setting if all teammates display positive group dynamics.

Cadet Purple

We can be ready, we just need a plan. We need to get beds made, the room swept, T-shirts and trousers ironed and boots done.

Cadet Blue

That's a lot.

Cadet Purple

I have an idea to be able to everything done on time.
Would you guys like to hear it?

(EVERYONE NODS IN AGREEMENT.)

Setting

Cadet Purple

I think we should divide the work that way we will be able to get things done fast. And if we get people to volunteer to do what they're good at... that should help too. Does that plan make sense to everyone?

(EVERYONE NODS IN AGREEMENT.)

Setting

Cadet Purple

I know if we work as a team, we can get everything finished on time and we will look great for the inspection. Okay, so which of us likes making beds?

Cadet Green

I do. I want to make beds.

Cadet Purple

Anyone else?

Cadet Red

Not me, I like ironing T-shirts, I'll do that

Cadet Purple

That sounds good. Anyone else want to volunteer?

Cadet Yellow

I like to polish boots. That's what I'll do.

Cadet Orange

Me too. I'll help Cadet Yellow

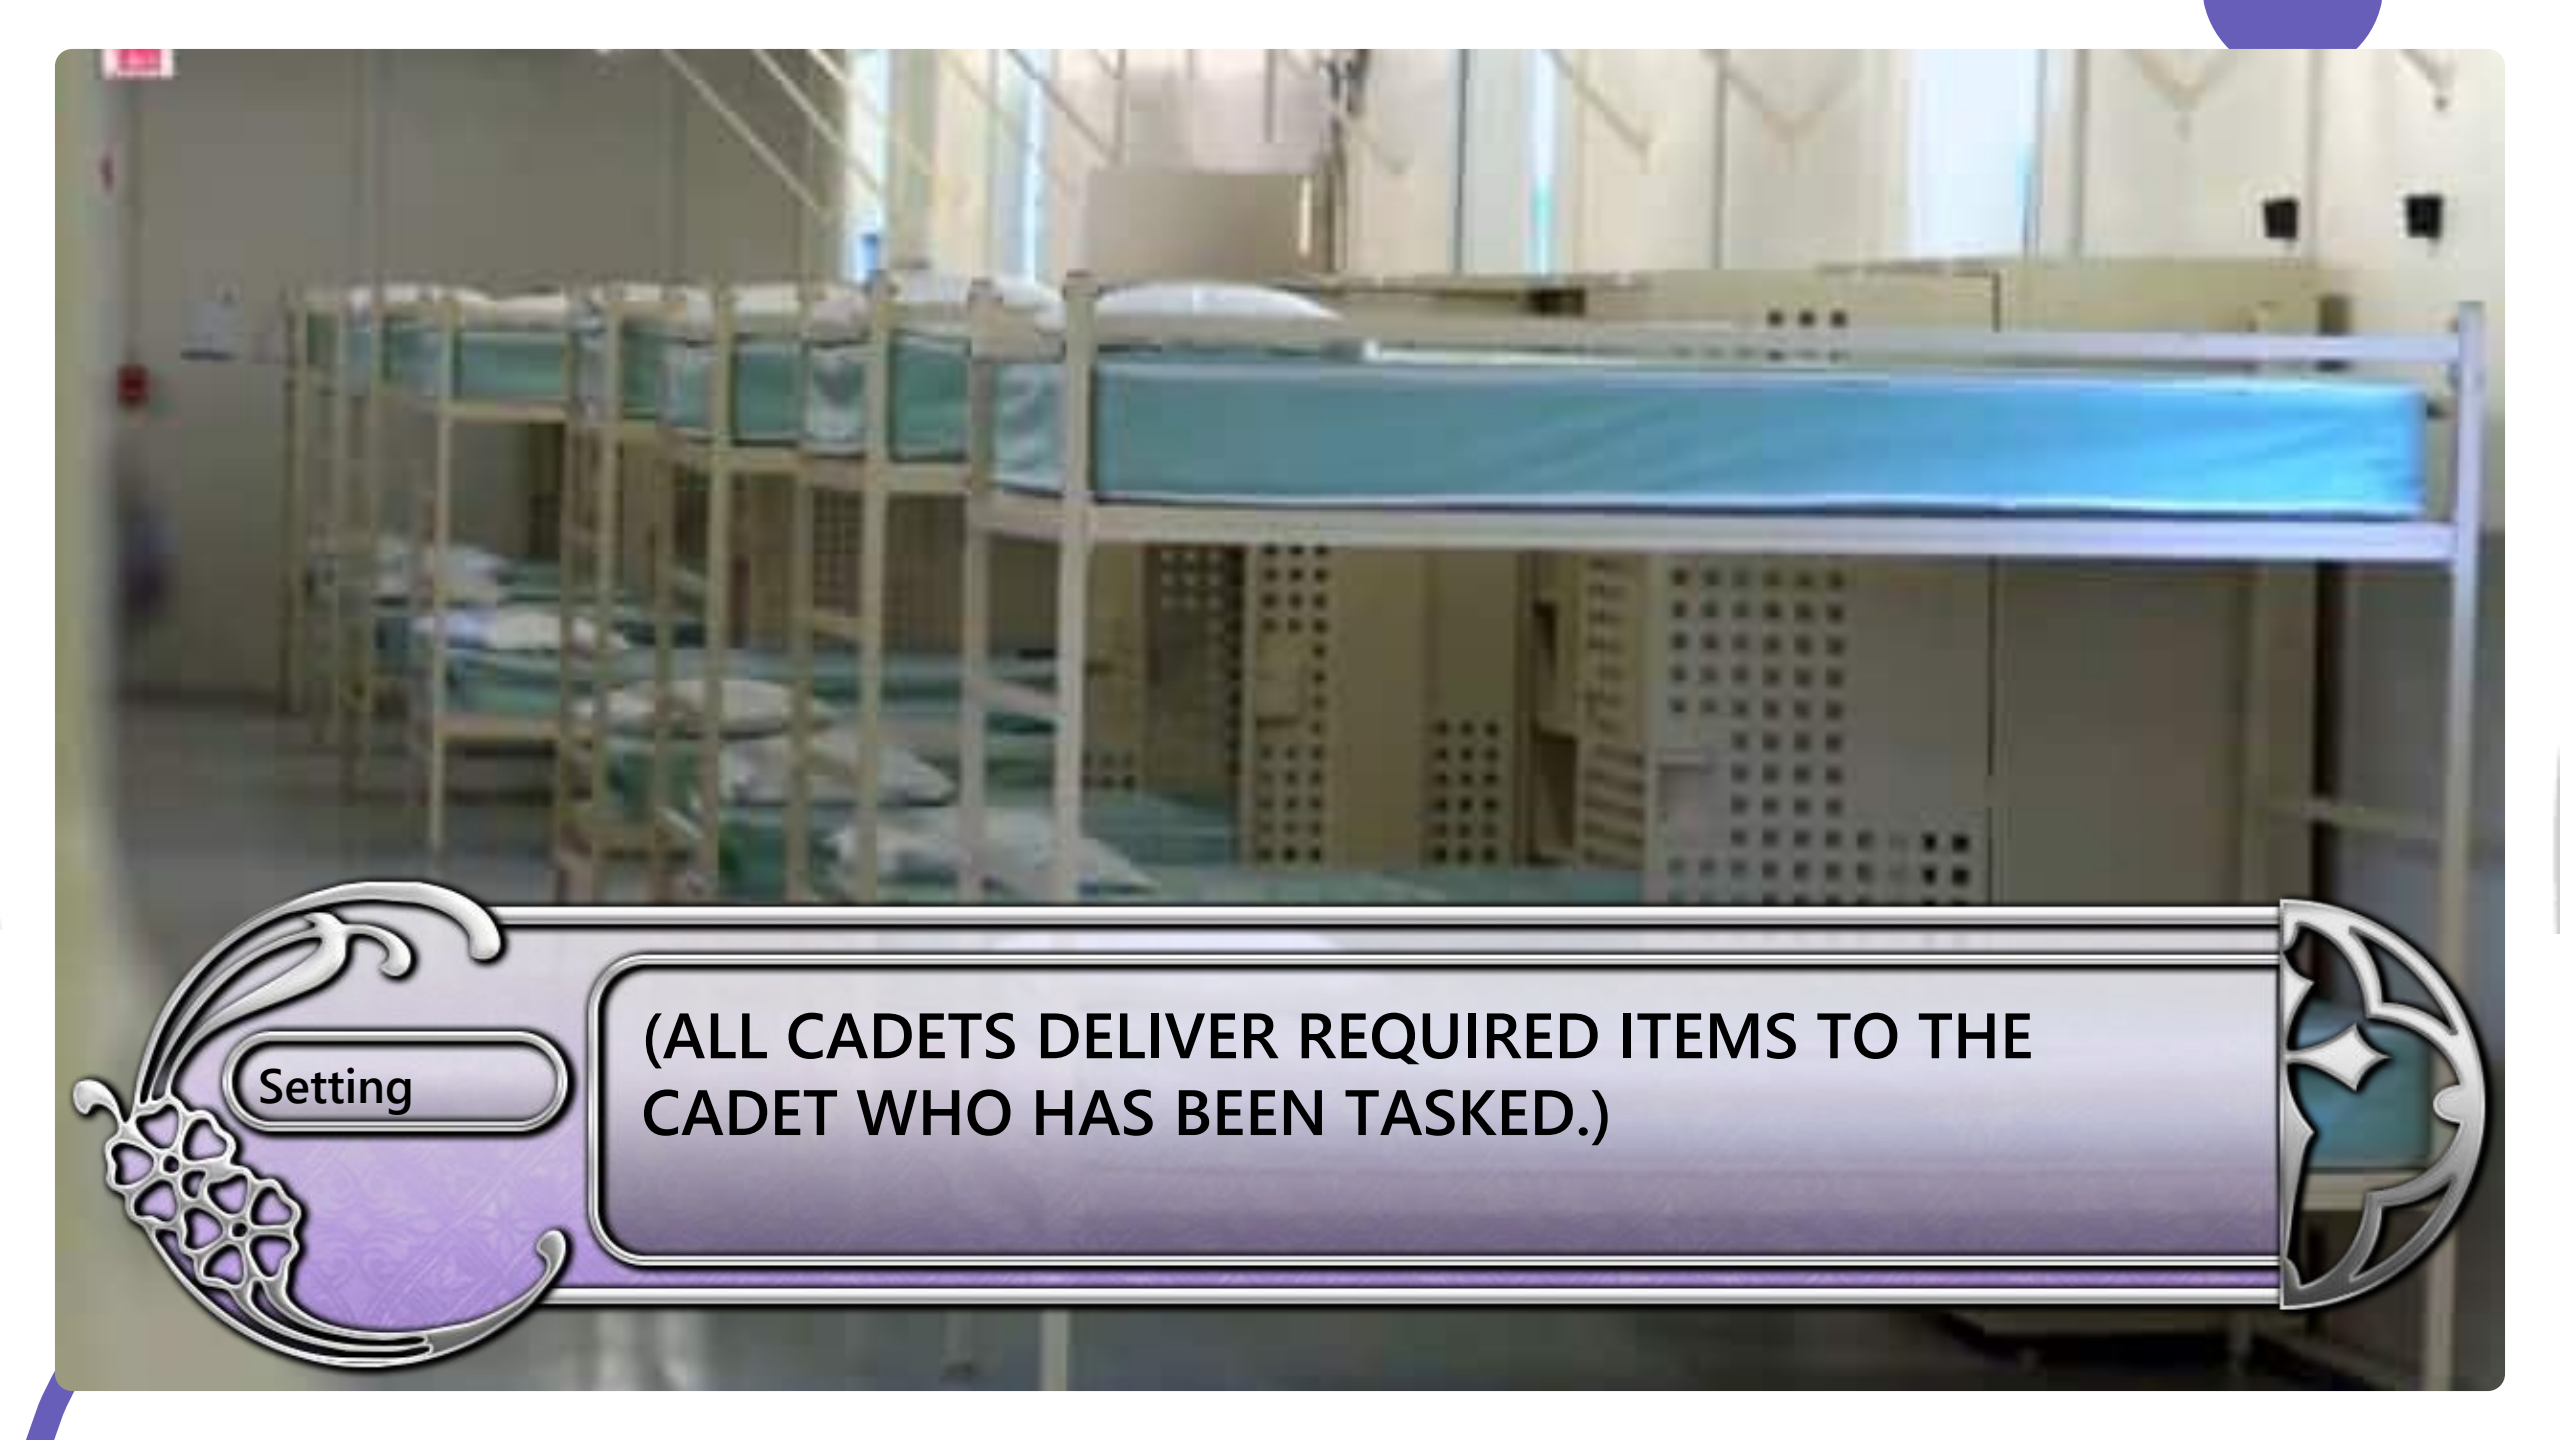

Cadet Blue

I don't mind ironing. I'll press everyone's trousers.

Cadet Purple

That leaves me to help with making beds and sweeping the room. Now that everyone has a task, we need to give out our T-shirts, trousers and boots.

Setting

(ALL CADETS DELIVER REQUIRED ITEMS TO THE CADET WHO HAS BEEN TASKED.)

Cadet Red

How long does everyone think this will take?

Cadet Purple

I think it should take about 40 minutes. Does that sound right?

(EVERYONE NODS IN AGREEMENT.)

Setting

Cadet Purple

Can everyone be back in 40 minutes?

Cadet Orange

No problem. Let's all be back in 40 minutes.

Setting

(EVERYONE NODS IN AGREEMENT.)
(40 MINUTES PASS.)
(ALL CADETS RETURN TO THE ROOM.)

Cadet Purple

As you can see the beds look really good. Thanks Cadet Green. How did everyone else do?

Cadet Red

T-shirts are finished and look good.

Cadet Yellow

Boots are polished and very shiny. Thanks Cadet Orange.

Cadet Orange

Thanks, we make a good team

Cadet Blue

Trousers are done too and if I do say so...they look good.

Cadet Purple

I think it's time to get into our uniforms 'cause I believe we're running out of time.

Setting

(EVERYONE GETS READY FOR THE INSPECTION.)

Cadet Purple

We look awesome, I know we will pass the inspection. Okay everyone, please stand at attention by your bed, because here comes the staff cadet.

Q1. When is persuasive behaviour used?

A1. Persuasive behaviour is used to influence decision-making and motivate others.

Q2. What are the potential benefits of the persuasive behaviour?

A2. Persuasive behaviour may allow teammates to understand the potential benefits to them created by the course of action and should aid teammates in their commitment to the task.

Q3. Name three situations where persuasive behaviour may be used?

A3. Persuasive behaviour may be used when problem-solving, counselling, teaching, etc.

TP3 - PARTICIPATIVE BEHAVIOUR

- Involves sharing decision-making with others.
- The main objective is to improve the quality and/or acceptance of decisions.
- Employ two basic methods – individual or group consultations and joint decision-making.
- Obtaining advice, opinions and recommendations from others before sharing decision-making is essential. Sometimes teammates possess critical information or expertise and that knowledge may make the difference between success or failure of the task.
- The use of the participative behaviour depends on the availability of time. Teammates expect to be consulted on and have a voice in decisions that affect them.
- Used in problem-solving, participating in team-building activities, resolving conflict in a peer setting, etc.
- All teammates have a part to play in making the decision.

The background of the slide is a photograph of several white, A-frame tents set up in a row on a grassy field. The scene is captured at dusk or dawn, with a soft orange and yellow glow on the horizon behind a line of dark evergreen trees. The sky is a pale blue. In the foreground, there is a decorative horizontal banner with a pink-to-white gradient and ornate silver scrollwork on the ends. On the left side of the banner, the word 'SETTING' is written in a small, rounded button.

SETTING

Cadet Red

Okay we have a barrack inspection in an hour, we had better get ready.

Cadet Orange

Do we have a uniform inspection at the same time or is it just the room?

Cadet Blue

Man, that's a lot of stuff in just an hour.

Cadet Yellow

It's not like we haven't done this before. We'll be okay.

Cadet Blue

We just need to get organized.

Cadet Purple

Let's make a plan. Any ideas?

Cadet Yellow

I know we are going to have to divide up the work, but how?

Cadet Red

What if we pick our jobs from a hat? That could work

Cadet Blue

How about just doing what we want to do?

Cadet Yellow

I thought, maybe, we could do what we're good at.

Cadet Purple

I really like that idea.

Cadet Orange

Me too, I like doing what I'm good at.

Cadet Red

Okay, sounds good.

Cadet Green

I'm on board.

Cadet Blue

Besides if we do what we're good at, everything should take less time.

Okay so who's good at what?

Cadet Purple

Cadet Green

I'm really good at ironing T-shirts.

Cadet Purple

Okay, that's your job and the team is expecting good things.

Cadet Red

My speciality is polishing boots. That should be my task.

Cadet Purple

That's your assignment then. Go ahead.

Cadet Yellow

I am an expert boot polisher. I'll assist Cadet Red.

I make the best beds. I should do that.

Cadet Orange

Cadet Blue

I'm good at making beds too and I'll sweep the floor.

Cadet Purple

Go to it, both of you. I iron trousers very well. That's what I'll do, and I'll stay out of everyone else's business. Okay let's get at it.

Setting

(EVERYONE NODS IN AGREEMENT.)

Cadet Red

How long does everyone think this will take?

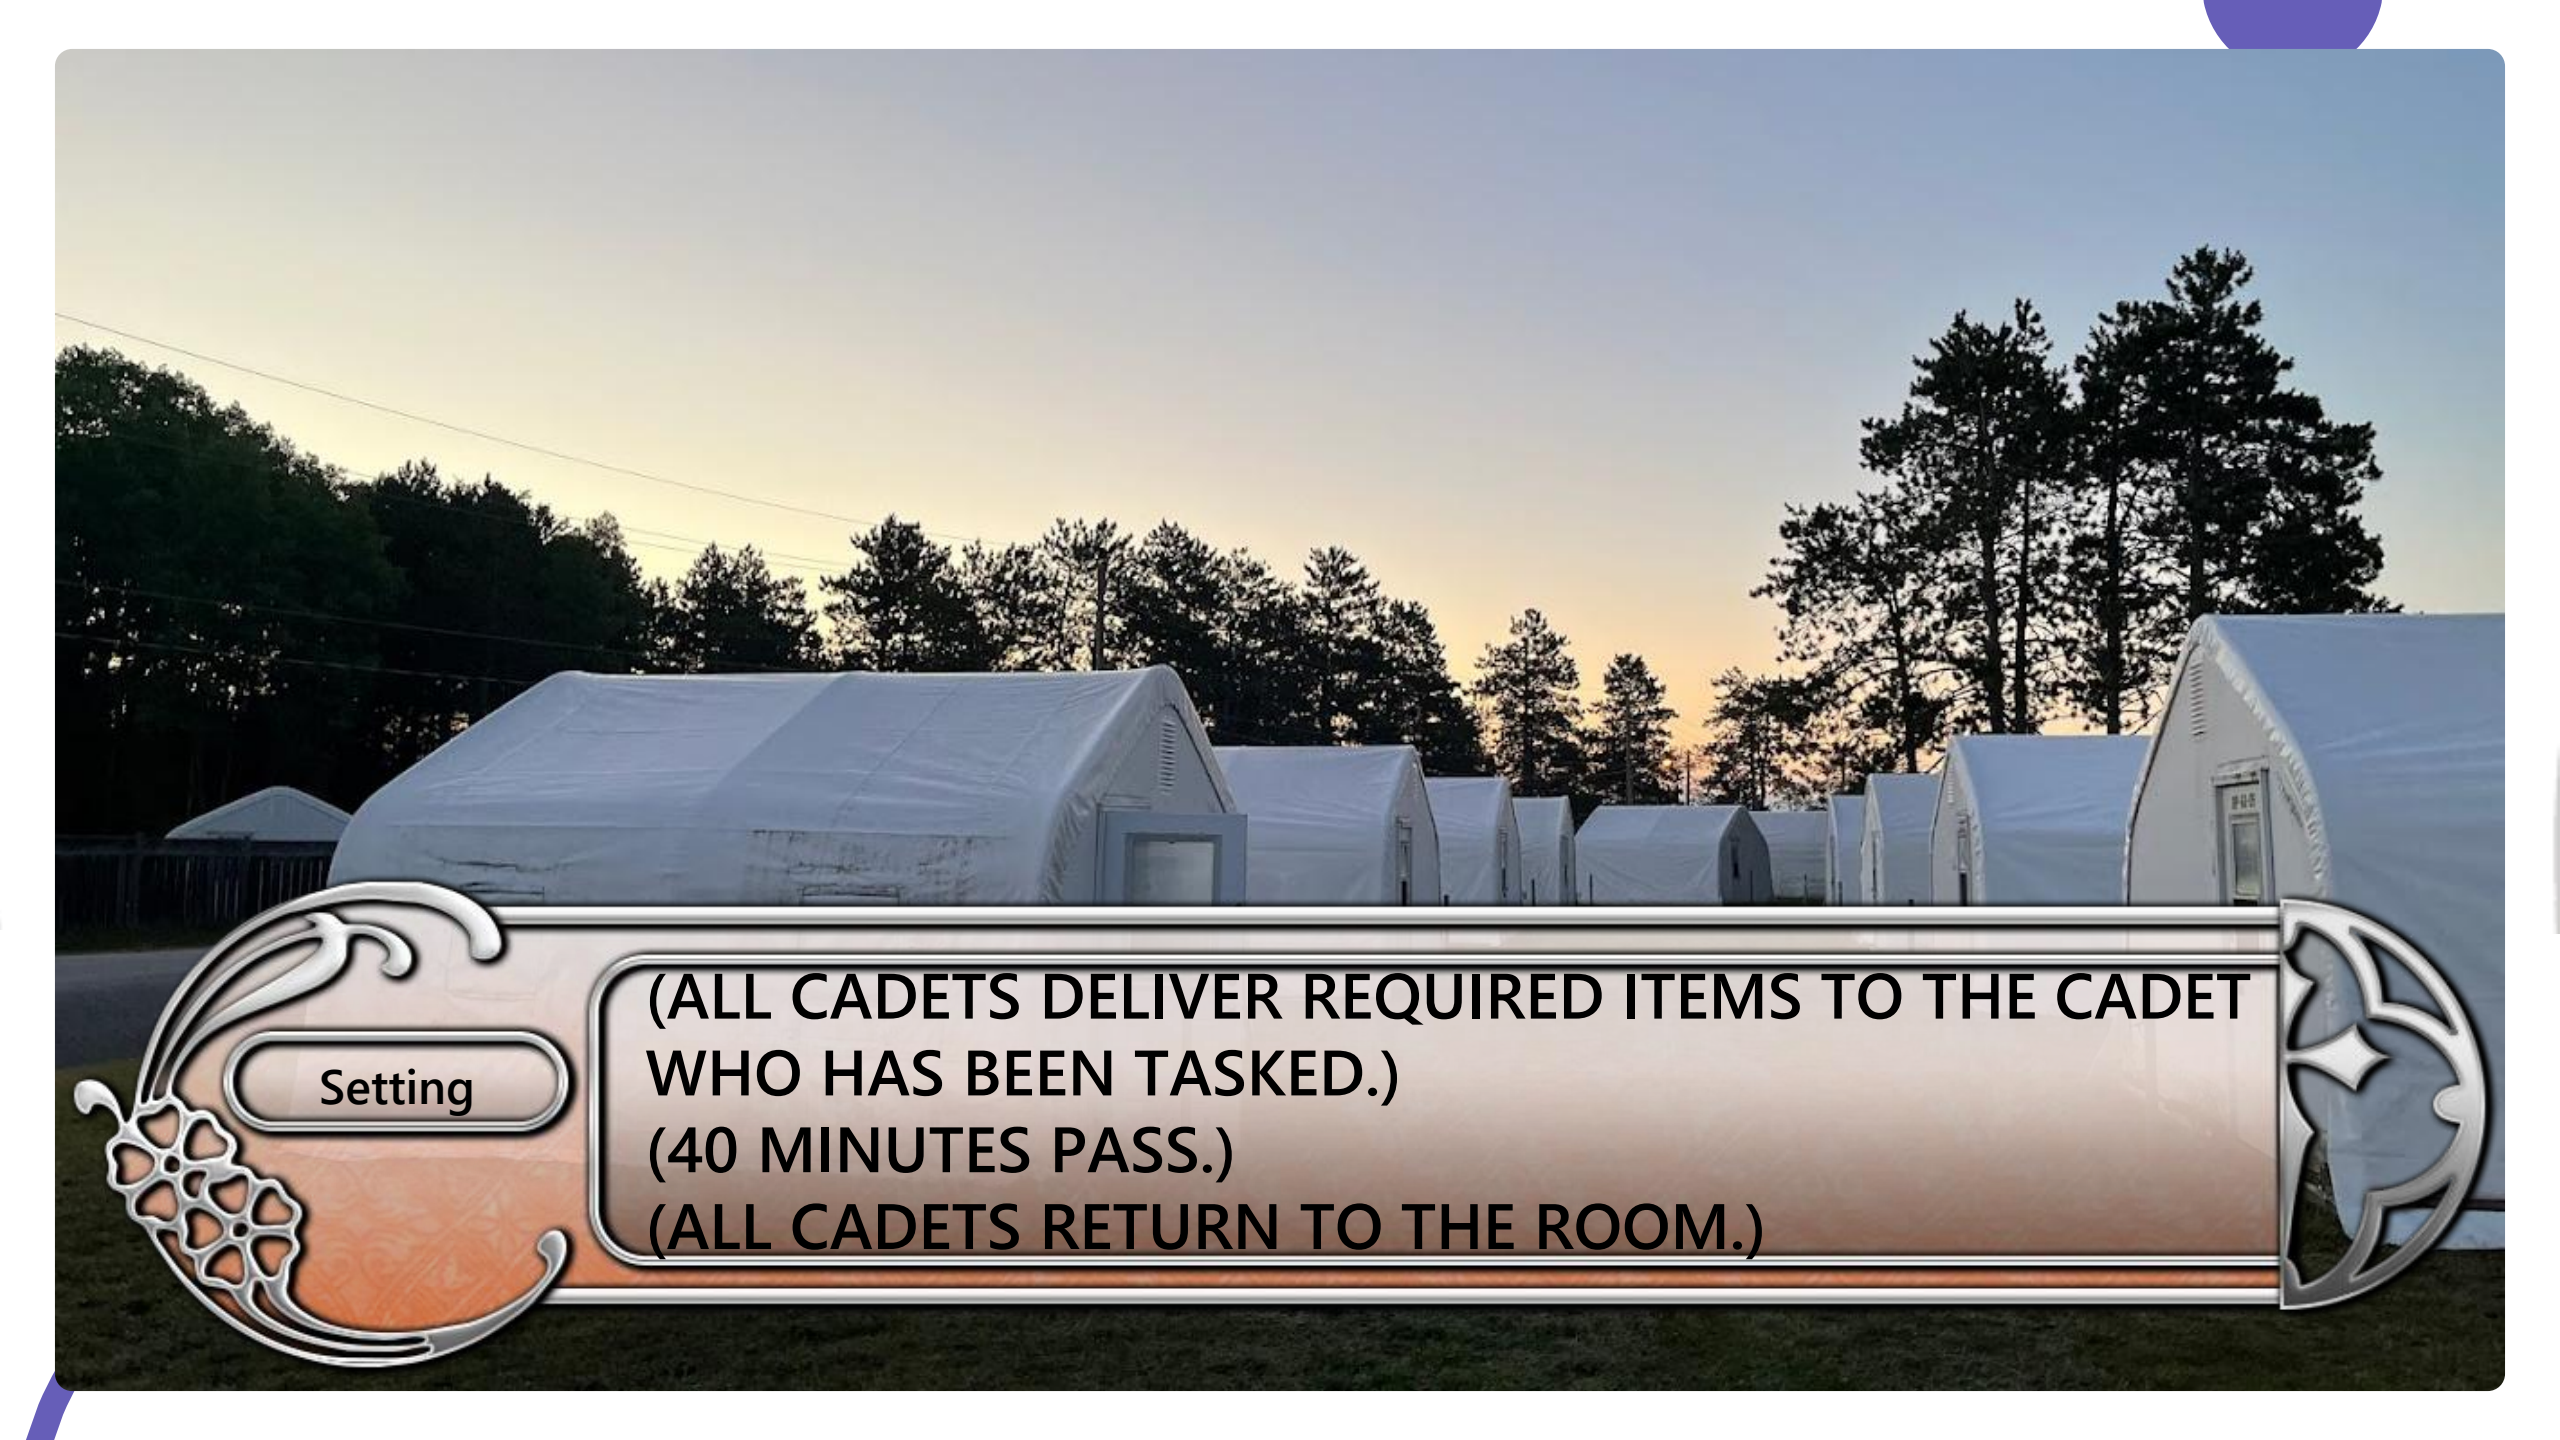

Cadet Blue

About 40 minutes?

Sounds good. Be back in 40 minutes then

Cadet Orange
